

"My Lord, today I have read some of my sacred story, and I have realised how meaningful you are to me. You have visited my youth and you have looked upon me still as though in my prime in order that I could give you the best of me, of my enthusiasm and desire to life. I have grown up Jesus, but I am still in my prime, in my early age in which the heart knows how to open itself and carry away with joy, with fondness and with hope.

I offer you my youth, Jesus, rich of errors, disappointments, sufferings and joy; I offer it unto you now, Lord, because it belongs to you. This is the age in which you have wanted me. This is the soil in which you have sown me and in which I have to die in order to sprout, to bring fruits and finally to be reaped by you until I become a little seed that alone will have to begin again."

Simona

The Lord's Servant

"Composing songs to you, Lord, is to put the prayer on the lips in brothers' hearts. Grant me to compose songs that make my brothers pray and praise... the world needs to hear singing out and praising it needs to discover again that there is a God, a God of love, who calls you to joy."

Oh Jesus, you suffered on the wood of the cross to take upon our faults and our weaknesses; Oh Jesus, you are the man of pain but also the God of Victory and Resurrection, I humbly pray you to beatify, in this earth too, your servant, our sister and friend Simona who shared with you the wood of the cross offering up her life for the brothers of her youth and saying her Amen every day:

*“Amen to my Creator,
to Him who gave His life for me.*

*To lay down on the wood and closing your eyes...
Singing your Amen”*

(Simona, Cagliari, 17.02.1984)

So, for her intercession I entreat you to grant me the favour ... that I deeply wish.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory
